University of Southern Denmark, Odense
8 November 2022

Conference aim

---

The aim of the conference is to share, document, demonstrate, substantiate, and analyse experiences of active teaching and learning. We hope to inspire refinement of current practice and development of new practices within active teaching and learning.

Conference theme: Teaching for Active Learning - with a special focus on:

Developing student and graduate competences for the 21st Century – share and be inspired by ways university teachers facilitate students in developing their holistic sense of self and competences for lifewide and lifelong learning (<http://www.lifewideeducation.com/>).

TAL2022 welcomes abstracts on all aspects of activating teaching and learning and developing student competences. The list below provides examples of ways you may be developing student competences:

- Developing students' awareness of personal, professional and/or academic competences
- Instruments and methods for improving students' awareness of their competence development – portfolios etc.
- Exam formats for assessing students' competence development
- Processes behind adjusting the curriculum to include competence development
- Student partnership initiatives which include competence development
- Integrating or being inspired by competency models, e.g. SDU RIO's Learner for Life; OECD's Transformative Competences; EU's EntreComp; Jackson's Lifewide learning into Programmes of Study, courses, classes
